1. What is your biggest source for worry right now?
2. How does worrying affect your life? Has it had an impact on any of your relationships?
3. What keeps you from replacing this worry with trust in God, our Father who always provides?
4. Where do you feel your “treasure” is right now? And how can you refocus your life on investing in what is eternal, and not in things that will pass away?

Video and Discussion Questions from RightNow Media

“Overcome Your Worries Through God’s Grace” by Bayless Conley

<https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/VideoElement/248851>

1. What might happen if you left tomorrow’s worries for another day? What might fall apart? What might go better for you?
2. Think about last week’s message where we learned about “daily bread” and God’s provision for the Israelites through manna in the desert. Then read Exodus 16:13-21 as a group. Are you busy trying to collect tomorrow’s manna today? How have you noticed that manna (tomorrow’s worries) “rot” or “fill with worms” in your life?
3. Where do you draw the line between being worried about tomorrow and planning ahead? What is healthy and what is not, with regard to the scripture discussed in this video?

“Why Worry?” by Elyse Fitzpatrick

<https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/VideoElement/120686>

1. There’s a lot to think about in this video. What stood out to you the most? Did anything speak to the worry in your life or stand out as if the Holy Spirit were saying it directly to you?

2. Elyse talks about treasures on earth and treasures in heaven and says that treasures on earth are subject to loss – so we worry! What earthly treasures do you worry about the most and what stands in the way of you fully entrusting those to God.
3. When we worry, in what ways are we taking on the role of God in our own lives? How can we learn to trust God in these areas? How can we encourage one another in these areas to trust fully in God and lean not on our own understanding, skill, or control?

Video: "Stop Freaking Out about Your Kids" by Kevin DeYoung
<https://www.rightnowmedia.org/Content/VideoElement/108157>

1. We all worry about our kids. But when is this worry causing more harm than good? How have you witnessed your own worry pass on to your children?
2. Talk about some ways that you can model trust for your children. How can you teach them to rely on God day by day to meet their needs, without being overcome by worry?
3. In the midst of all the things we worry about for our children, how can we as a group support each other and help each other to trust God for our kids? Kevin talked about some things we can do to raise our kids (praying for them, loving them, disciplining them, teaching them, etc.). What are some other specific things you can do on a daily basis to give your kids to God and to worry less?
