Video and Discussion Questions from RightNow Media

"Restore in Me the Joy of My Salvation (Session 14)" - by Rebekah Lyons

1. In the video, Rebekah talks about having her life planned out and then God turning her 90 degrees in another direction. How has God interrupted the plans you made for your own life to take you on another path? Were you able to trust God to be with you as you "stepped in to the unknown?" Why or why not?
2. Rebekah teaches us that attachment leads to connection which leads to trust. In terms of your relationship with God, where are you in this progression? Where do you think the Israelites were when they were wandering in the desert? If you aren't in the position of fully trusting God, what steps do you need to take next to propel you forward? Take a few moments to discuss as a group what life looks like when you reach full and complete trust in God.
3. Which is easier for you... to think about God's abundance in your life, or to think about what you lack? Take some time to share how has God abundantly provided for you over the past week or month? (Think beyond financial measures and focus on "soul abundance.") Then as a group, thank God for how He has abundantly provided for you and ask that your eyes may always be open to see His blessings above anything else.

Family-Related Questions:

1. In following the attachment-connection-trust example from the video, how do you see this play out with your own children? How can you help your children understand this crucial relationship with God?
2. Are your (older) children able to see God's blessing and provision in their lives? How can you help them to understand that God (and not you, or peers, or money, or success, ...) is the ultimate provider of all we need?
